FOREWORD

Let's suppose this is the year 1970, fifteen years after this edition of the CRUSADER has been published.

This may be the first time you have read this little item, the Foreword, which seems to be a necessary part of a yearbook. Well, look at the theme (a yearbook generally has a theme, you know): "YOU WERE THERE." And you were there, weren't you? You saw (or maybe you were one of the) sophomores who swelled our enrollment to nearly two thousand. You saw the newly-completed boys' gym occupied; the thrilling last moment tying the score at the North Dallas football game; the fast

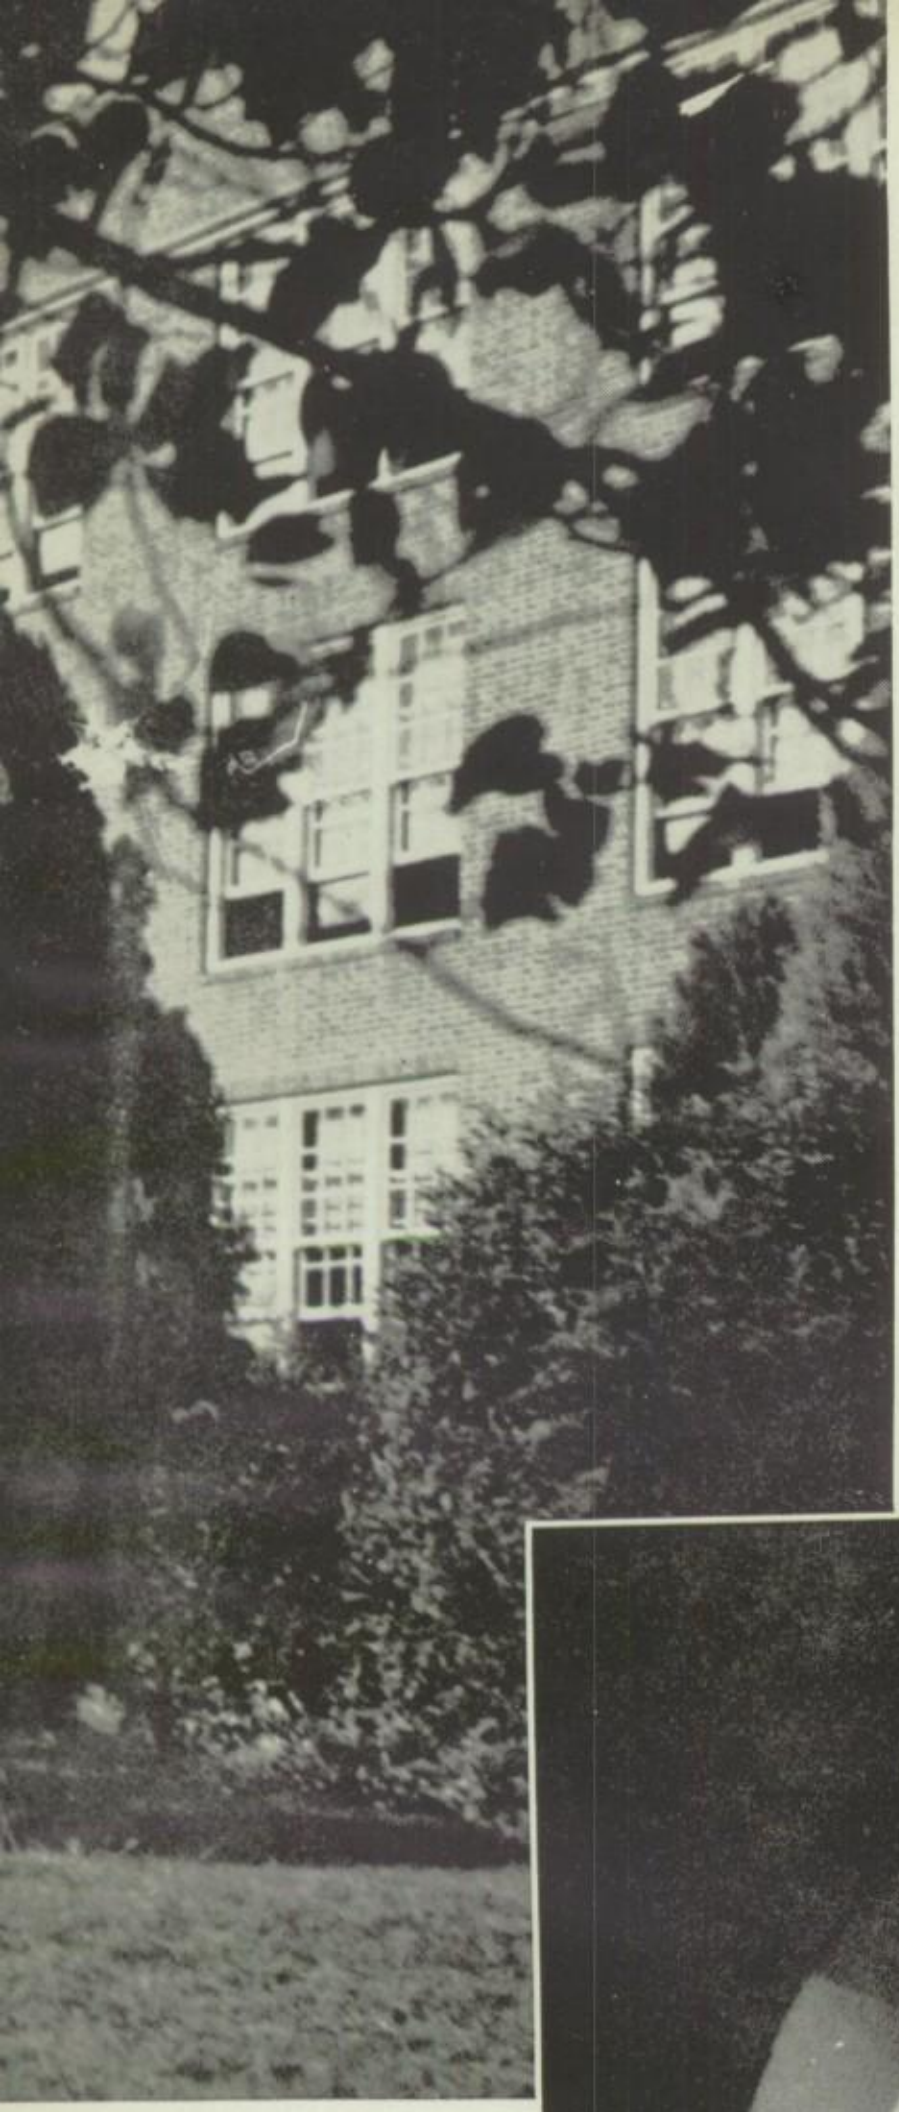
DEDICATION

In Colonel George R. Royster, Woodrow Wilson is fortunate to have an outstanding musician and a forceful leader. He has devoted much extra time and energy to our several bands, developing the musical talents of the individual students. A man of high character, he wields and influence for good over his pupils, who love and admire him. Through his leadership our concert band has become "biggest and best" in the city. In appreciation, we dedicate this book, the 1955 CRUSADER, to our "Colonel."

The Colonel is perplexed over how his yard has grown up in weeds so quickly. With his weapon to combat the problem he sizes up the situation.

This joke will do to tell! CRUSADER sponsor Paul Allen assures Col. Royster that the staff was only kidding when they pretended to ask his advice on a piece of music that really said, "Congratulations, Colonel Royster, for the 1955 CRUSADER will be dedicated to you!"



ALMA MATER

Its open windows attesting activity on a warm fall afternoon, the building of Woodrow Wilson High School presents to the graduate a nostolgic picture through the foilage that surrounds it.

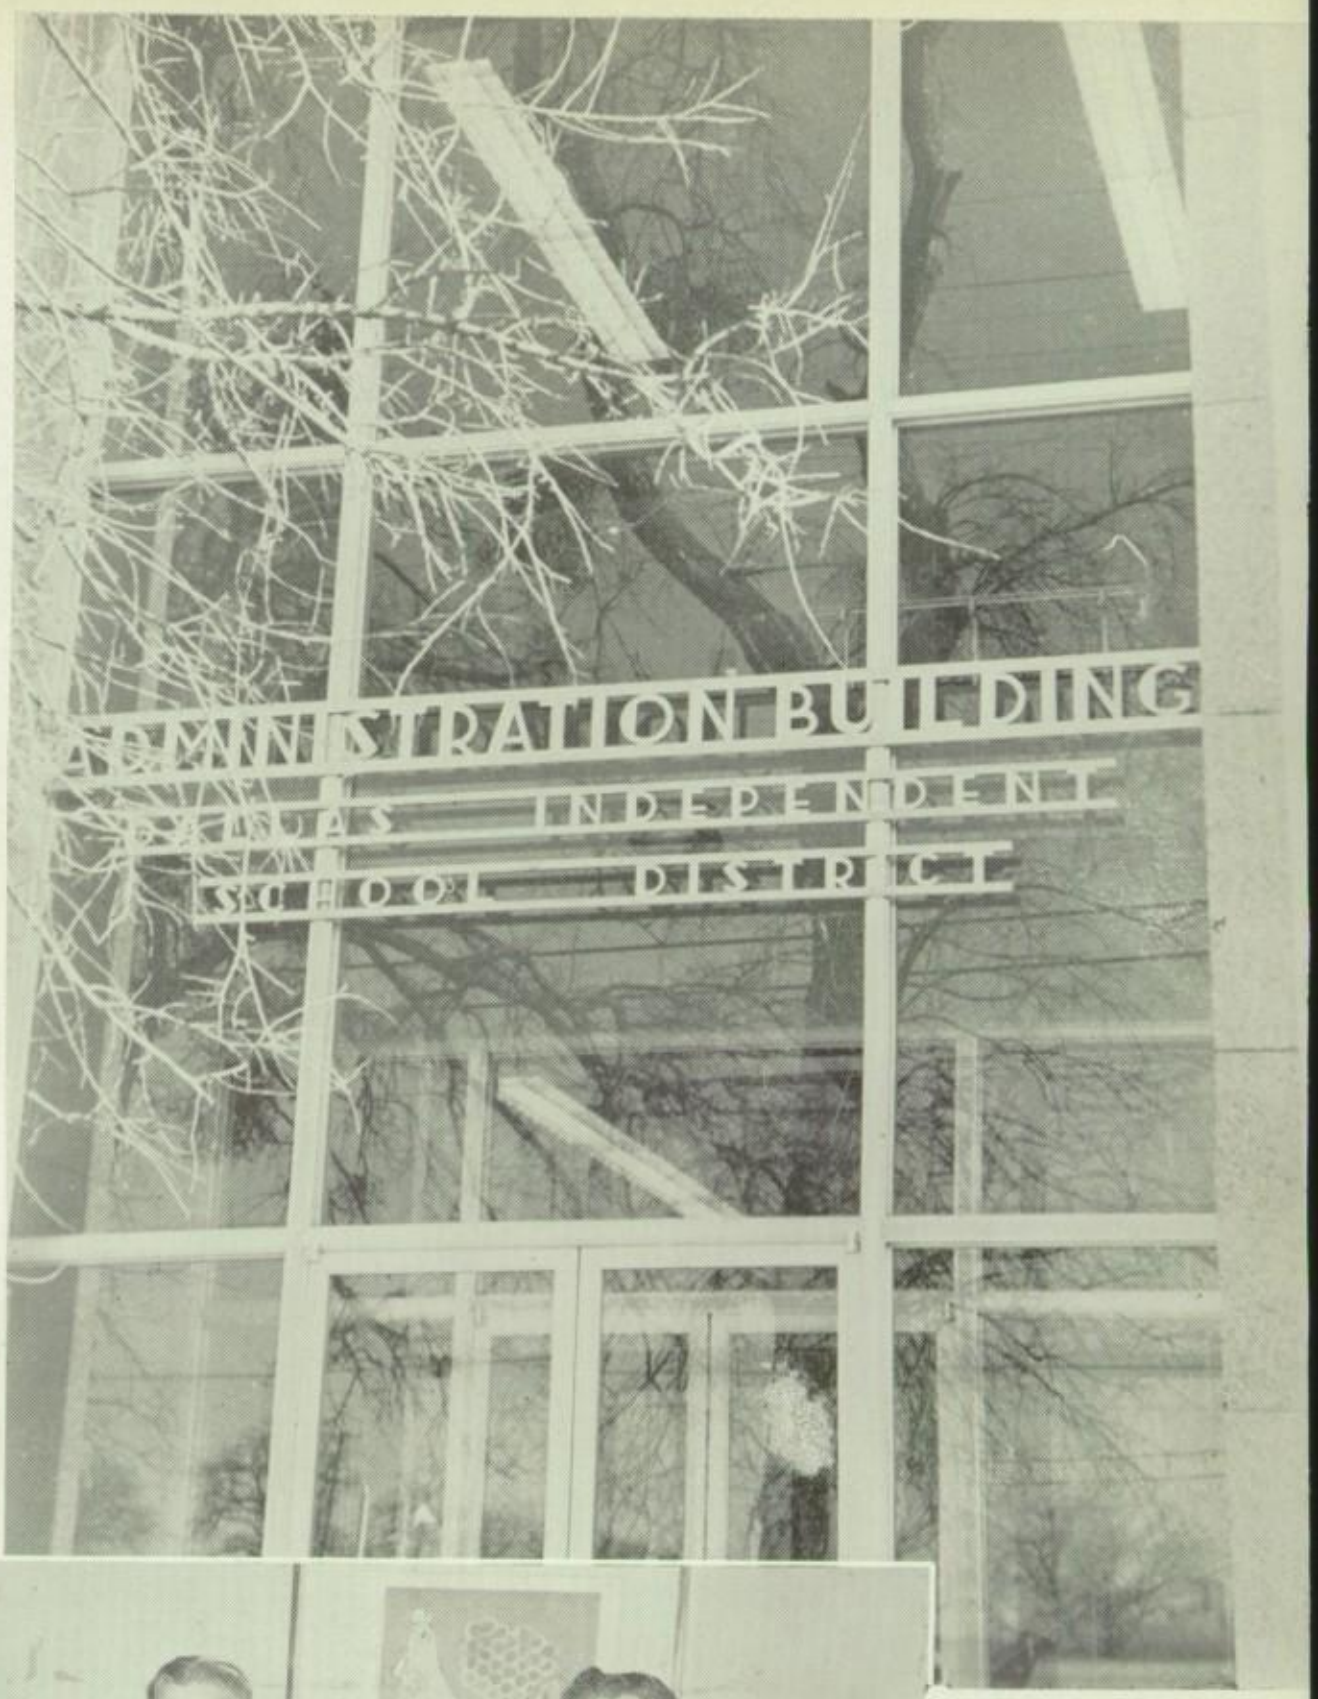
ADMINISTRATORS' TASKS GROW WITH SCHOOL SYSTEM EXPANSION

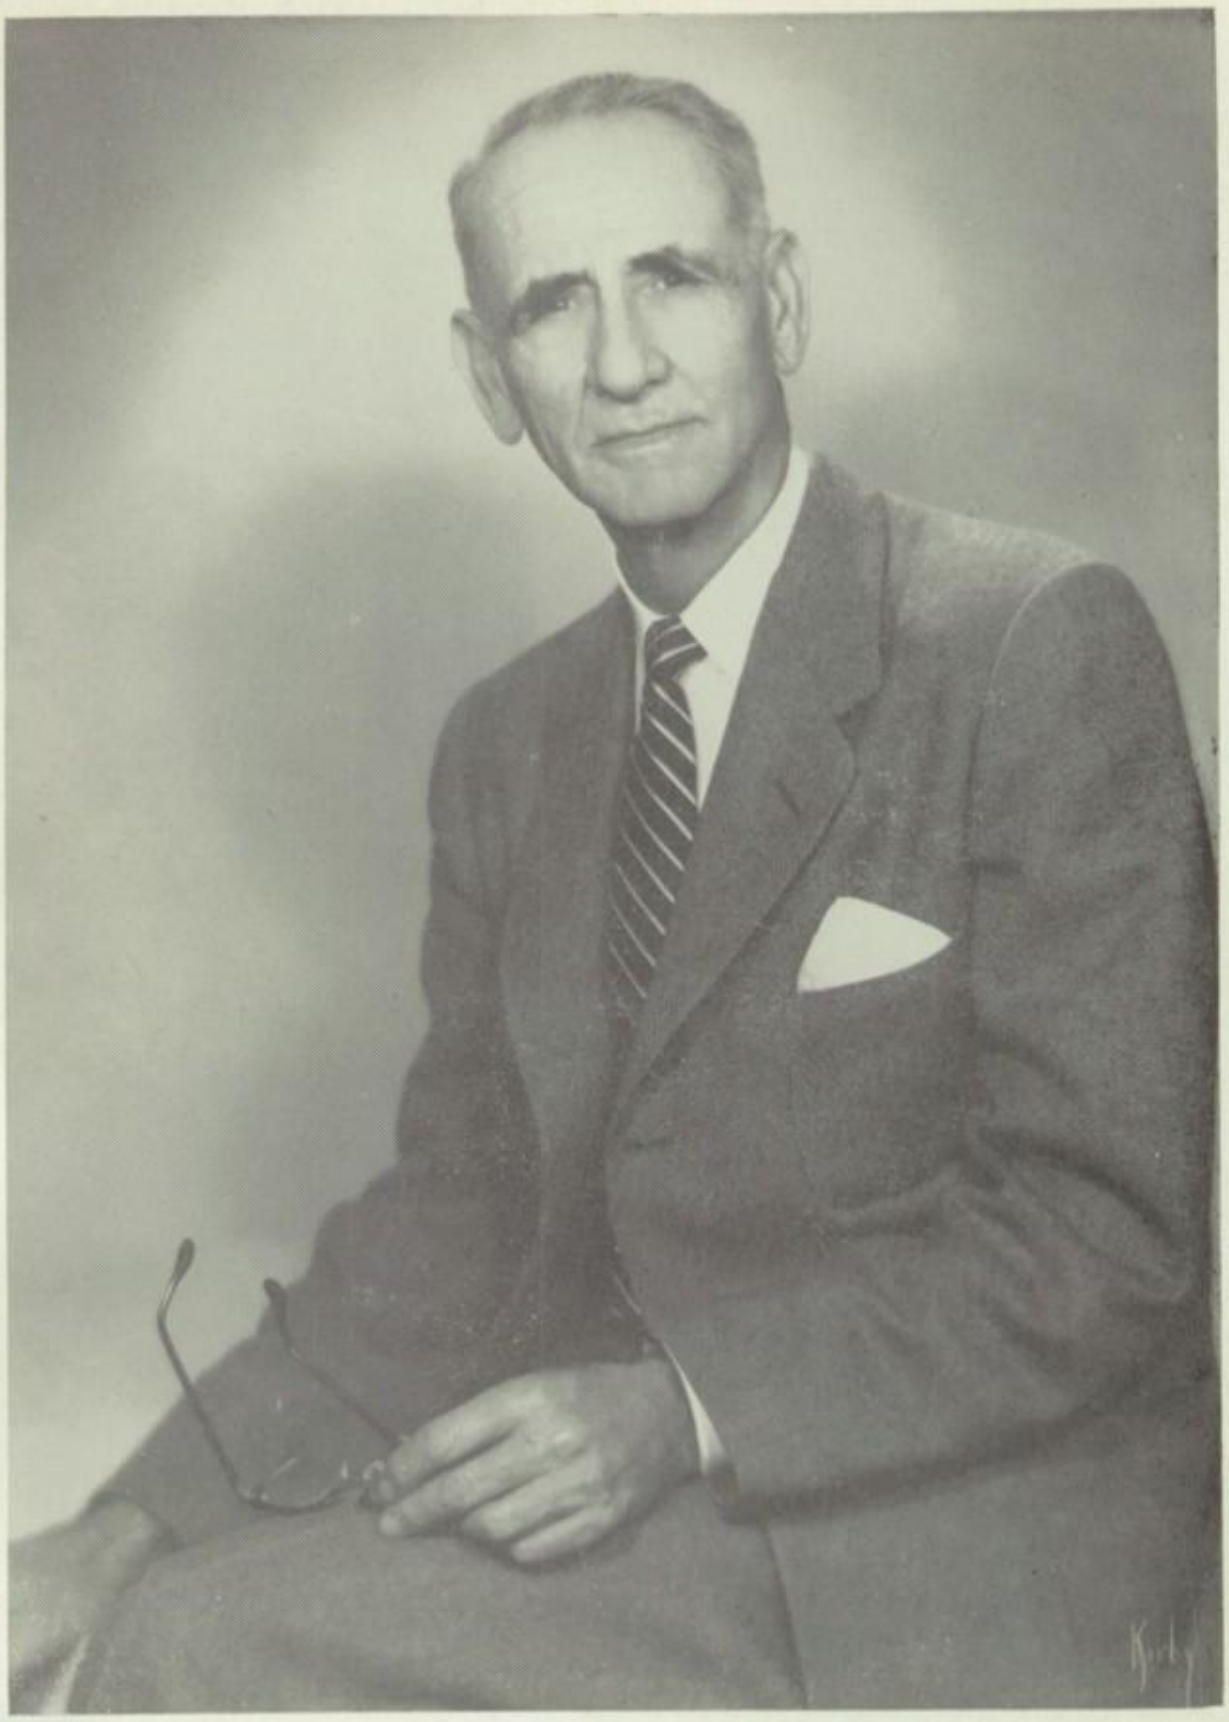
A schoolroom of children is born in Dallas every day, so say the statisticians. The Administrators of the Dallas Public Schools are hard put to keep abreast of this tremendous growth, but progress is evident in every section of the city in scores of new buildings. The staff has kept abreast with the less tangible aspects of the problems also in providing outstanding teachers and other personnel, and by efficiently handling the myriad of other details incident to running a huge school system.



The new addition to the School Administration Building typifies the steady progress of the Dallas Public School System.

Surrounding School Superintendent Dr. W. T. White, seated, center, are his assistants, left to right, Robert H. McKay, Assistant Superintendent in Charge of Administration; Don E. Matthews, Assistant to the Superintendent; Dr. Ewell D. Walker, Assistant Superintendent in Charge of Personnel; Bryan Adams, Business Manager; Jess O. Cardwell, Coordinator in Secondary Education; and Dr. Frank L. Williams, Assistant Superintendent in Charge of Curriculum.

PRINCIPAL
G. L. ASHBURN



Known over Texas, the Southwest, and in many parts of the nation as an outstanding educator, Principal G. L. Ashburn is known to the students of Woodrow as their "Pop." Friendly and understanding to both faculty and students, "Pop" is truly a living part of our school. His wise leadership and understanding help to make Woodrow Wilson the outstanding school that it is.

Despite "Pop's" jocular confessions to nervousness he seems perfectly calm as he speaks to the proud students and visitors at graduation.

ABLE STUDENT ASSISTANTS LIGHTEN WORK

OF BUSY SCHOOL OFFICES

Principal's secretary, Susie Downs, Delores Hunter and Mrs. Bertine Crossno take time out from phone calls, inventories, and teachers' and students' inquiries for a friendly visit.

Athletic Office Assistants take care of routine office duties of busy coaches. They are, left to right, Jackie Stepter, Wileen Jones, Betty Sue Doeble, and Mary Frances Hiles.

WILDCATS, DEFENDING HAVE GOOD YEAR, BUT

This year the Wildcat Eleven, although it failed to come up to the record set by the 1953 team, gave Woodrow Wilson students good reason to be proud of them. Their good sportsmanship and the effort to win put forth by every member of the team made all loyal football fans of the school glad to be a part of the multitude cheering for the Silver and Flame. Several of the games were won or lost by a close margin, but the biggest thrill of the season came with the North Dallas game. In the last four seconds of this crucial game with our perennial rivals, Gerald Neely came through with a touchdown. Then with the fans going wild and under extreme pressure, J. N. Legg kicked the extra point to even up the score. Thus the Wildcats still are able to say that North Dallas has not won a game from them in years. Next year, with ten returning lettermen, coaches say that chances for an outstanding season are "hopeful."

BI-DISTRICT CHAMPS, MISS PENNANT

SIXTEEN 1954 LETTERMEN TO BE MISSING IN '55

The Woodrow sophomore hopeful, Gerald Neely, clutches the pigskin tightly as two North Dallas Bulldogs attempt a tackle. Tense and exciting, this "game of the year" ended in a tie, 19 - 19.

COMPETITION KEENER AS CITY CONFERENCE GROWS

With nine teams in the Dallas High School AAAA League, and more to enter within a few years, the competition between these teams becomes greater each year. Also, the number of non-conference games is limited. Previously the WW team had traveled to at least two out-of-town contests. The only trip made in 1954 was to Lubbock.

Gerald Neely (8), backed by Jack Wertheimer, lunges for Forest's Strnard as he fights his way to the goal line. Forest defeated the Wildcats 27 to 13.

"B" TEAM PROVING GROUNDS FOR FUTURE LETTERMEN

The "B" football team, under the leadership of Coach Burian Hightower, is the training school for boys new to high school football. In games against "B" teams of other schools in the city, these boys gain a great deal of experience which proves valuable in the future when they become members of the varsity squad. Although the "Wildkittens" did not win the championship this year, several promising men were discovered for the "A" squad next year.

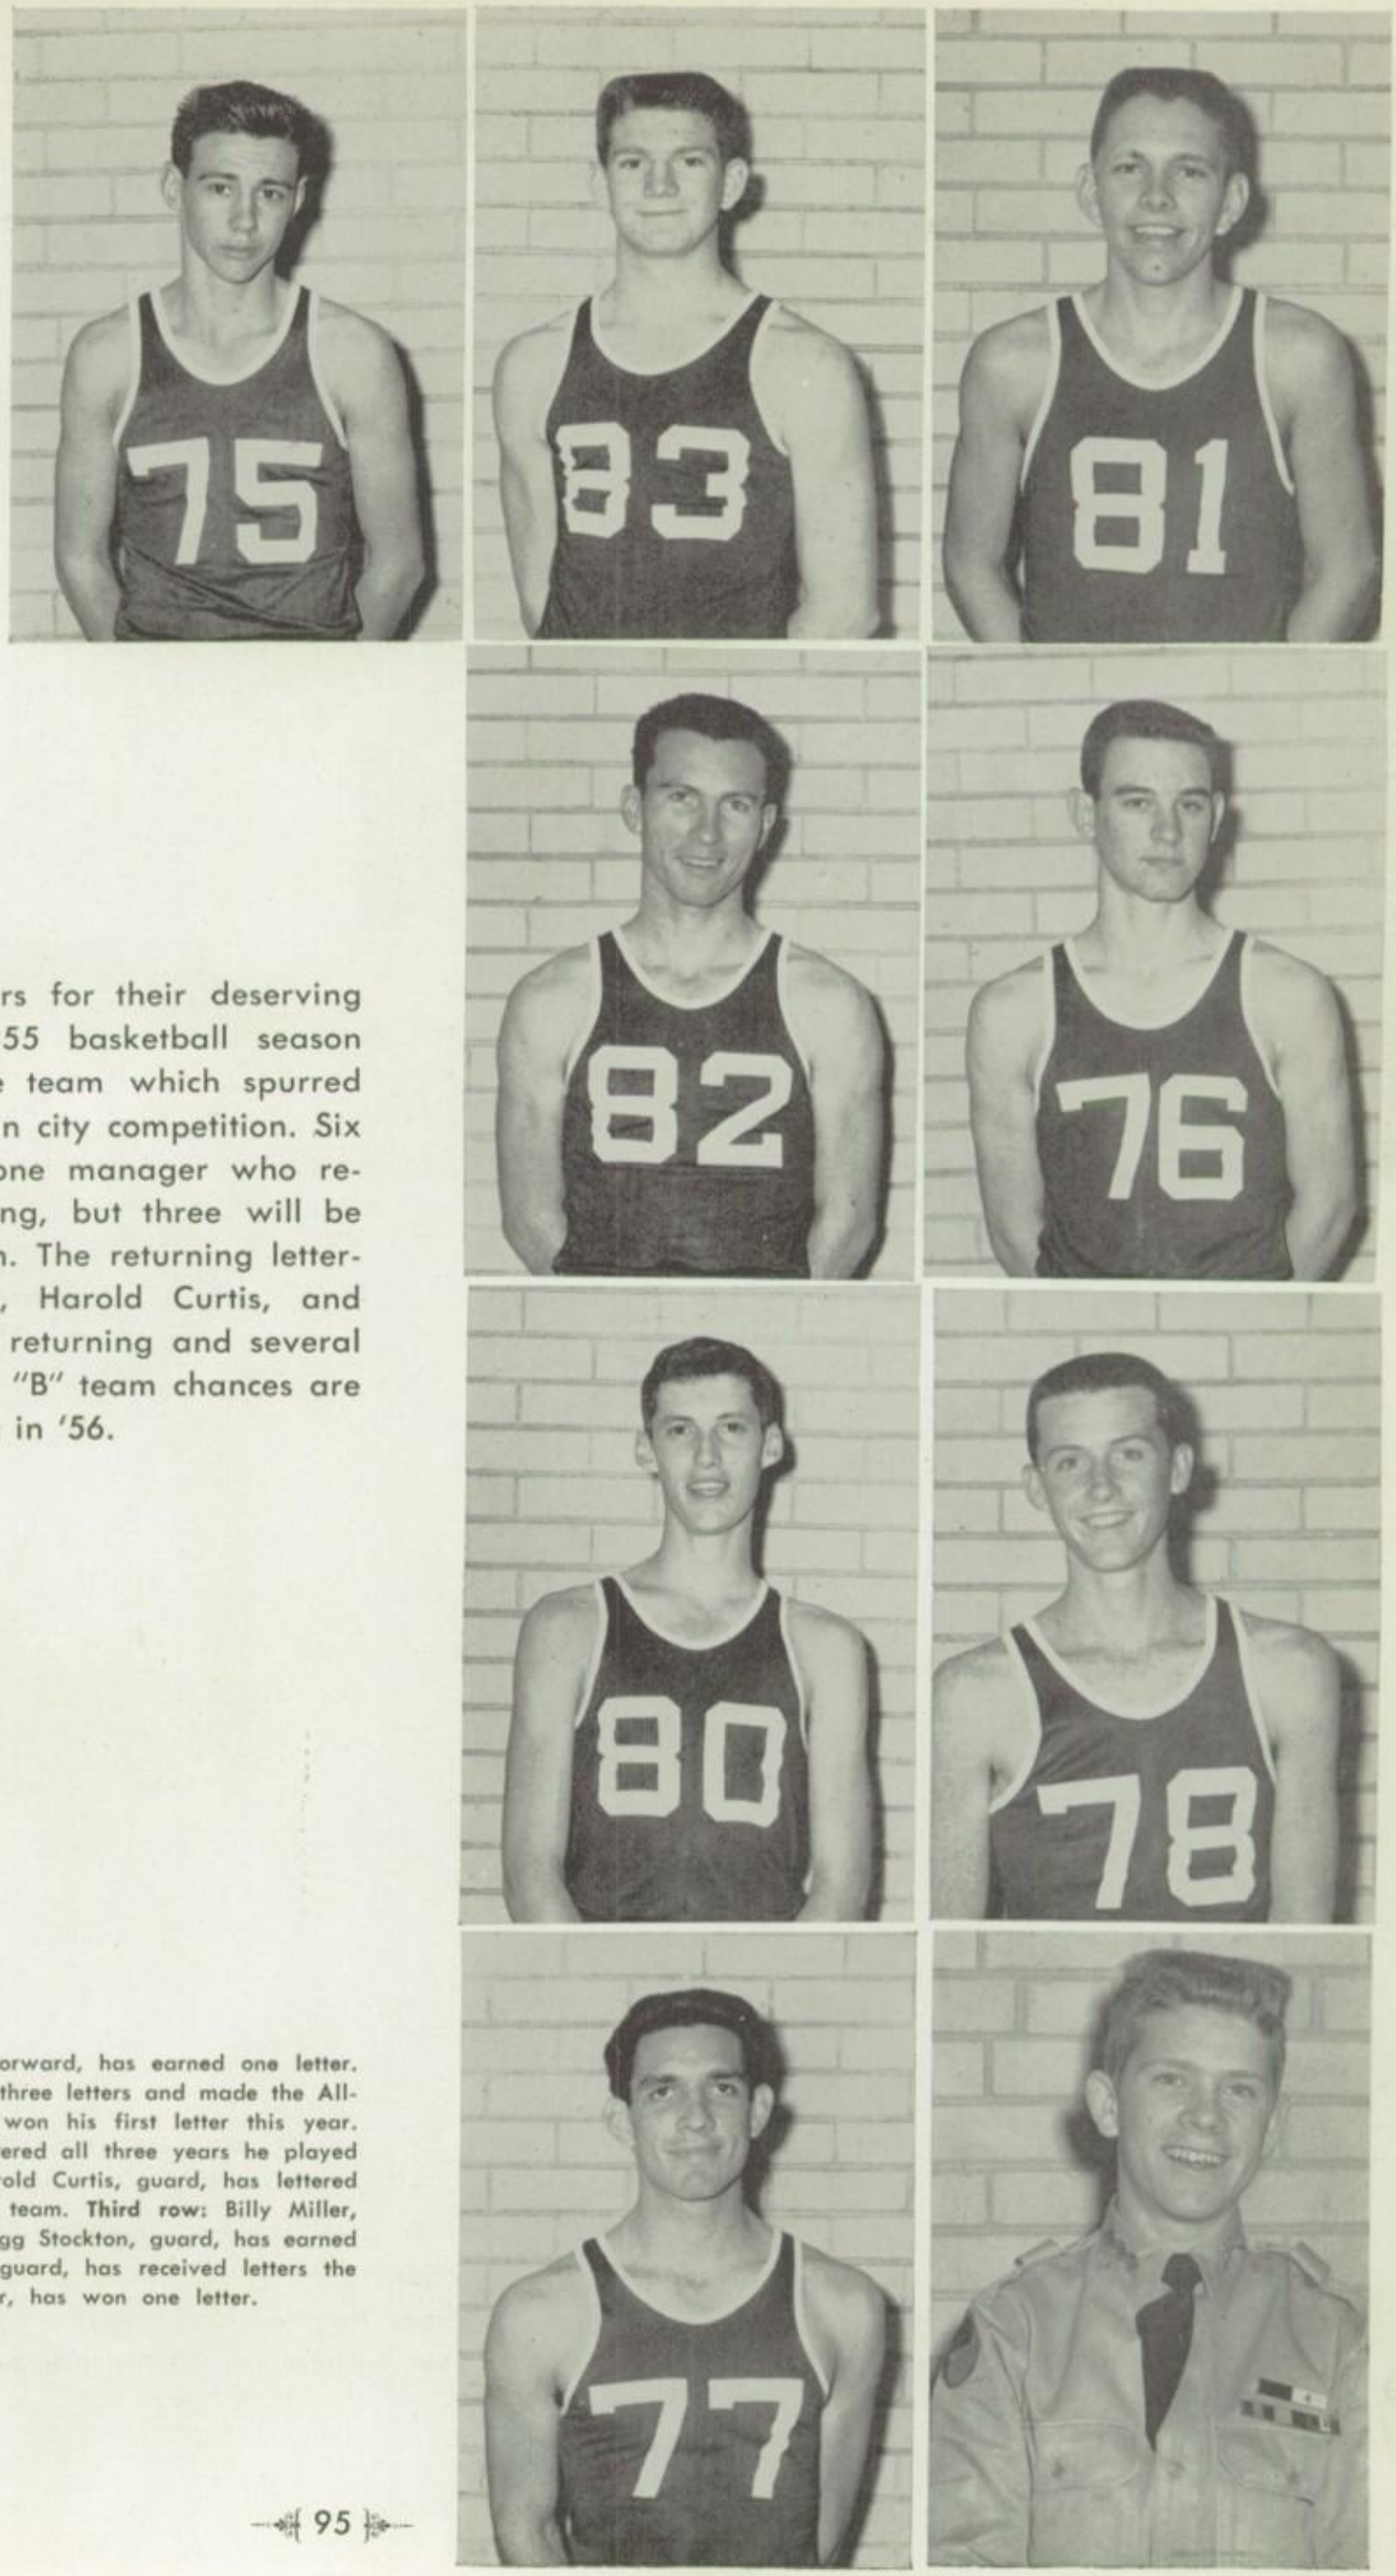
Coach Bennie Kelley

The "A" basketball team made an outstanding showing this year, completing the season in second place, first place going to State Champions, Crozier Tech. In addition to their excellent city standing, they also proved their worth in two tournaments. In the Sulphur Springs tournament in Sulphur Springs, Texas, they played against teams from other parts of the state and won the tournament. In the annual Dr. Pepper Tournament here in Dallas, the Wildcats played in competition with 32 other Texas teams and finished in second place. The winners of the tournament had beaten Crozier Tech in an earlier game.

LETTERMEN SPARK CAGERS IN OUTSTANDING SEASON



These boys who won letters for their deserving performance in the 1954-55 basketball season were the force behind the team which spurred them to win second place in city competition. Six of the eight players and one manager who recevied letters are graduating, but three will be back for next year's season. The returning lettermen are David Campbell, Harold Curtis, and Bragg Stockton. With these returning and several good prospects up from the "B" team chances are hopeful for a good showing in '56.

Top row, left to right: Bobby Addy, forward, has earned one letter. Stanley Babbitt, forward, has received three letters and made the All-City Team. David Campbell, forward, won his first letter this year. Second row: Larry Carter, forward, lettered all three years he played on the Woodrow basketball team. Harold Curtis, guard, has lettered one year and also made the All-City team. Third row: Billy Miller, center, is the owner of two letters. Bragg Stockton, guard, has earned one letter. Fourth row: Oscar Turner, guard, has received letters the past two years. Bob Flournoy, manager, has won one letter.

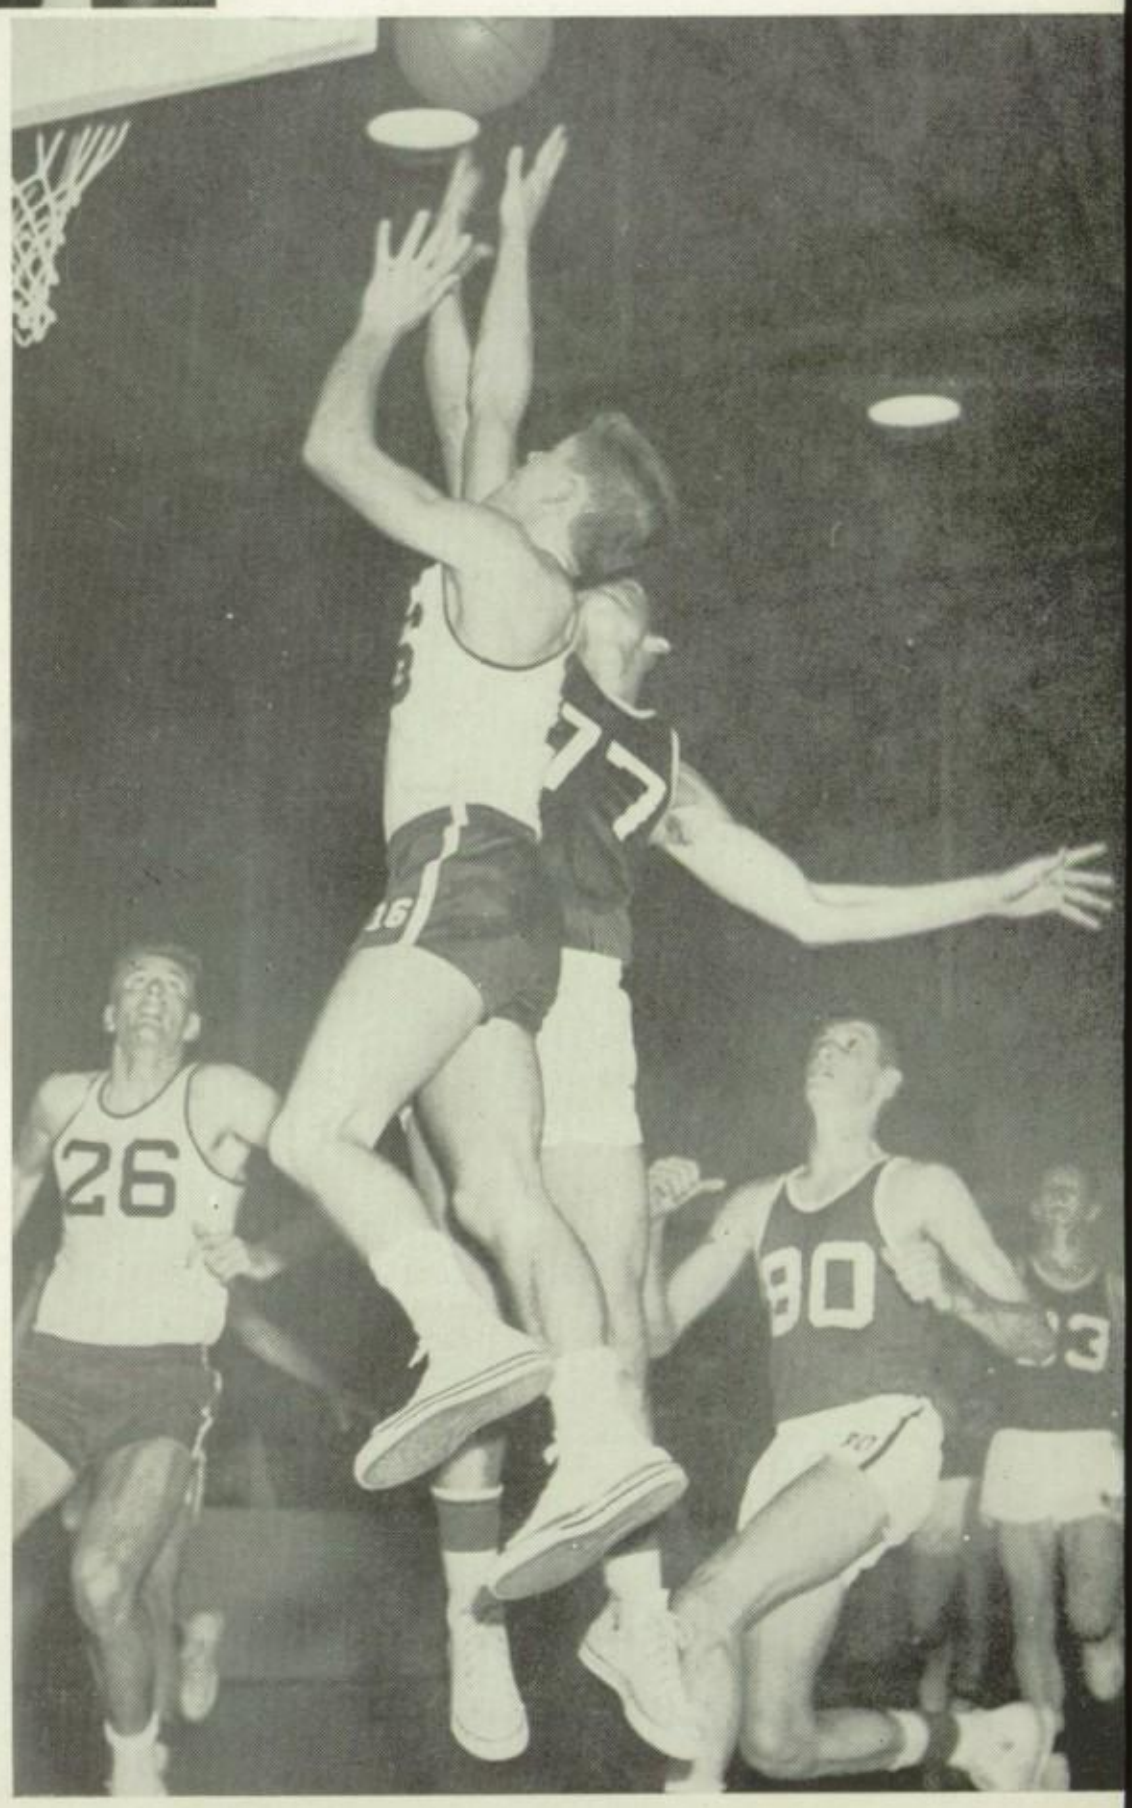
BASKETBALL, FASTEST SPORT, HAS MANY FANS AT WW



Basketball players are in the air almost as much as on the floor. Here Oscar Turner (77) is shown in a "super" effort to sotp a shot by Tech's Burton (16). Billy Miller (80) is ready to catch the rebound. Tech went on to win 69 to 49.

"B" BASKETBALL TEAM WINS IN CITY SERIES

This year the "B" basketball team under the coaching of Tom McBrayer won the championship in competition with other "B" teams of the city. They proudly boast a record of only two losses during the entire season, both by a single point. Because of the experience gained in "B" team games, several of the members of the team are considered as likely prospects for next season's "A" team.

Coach McBrayer of the "B" team blows his whistle to let the players know that another day of grueling workouts is over.

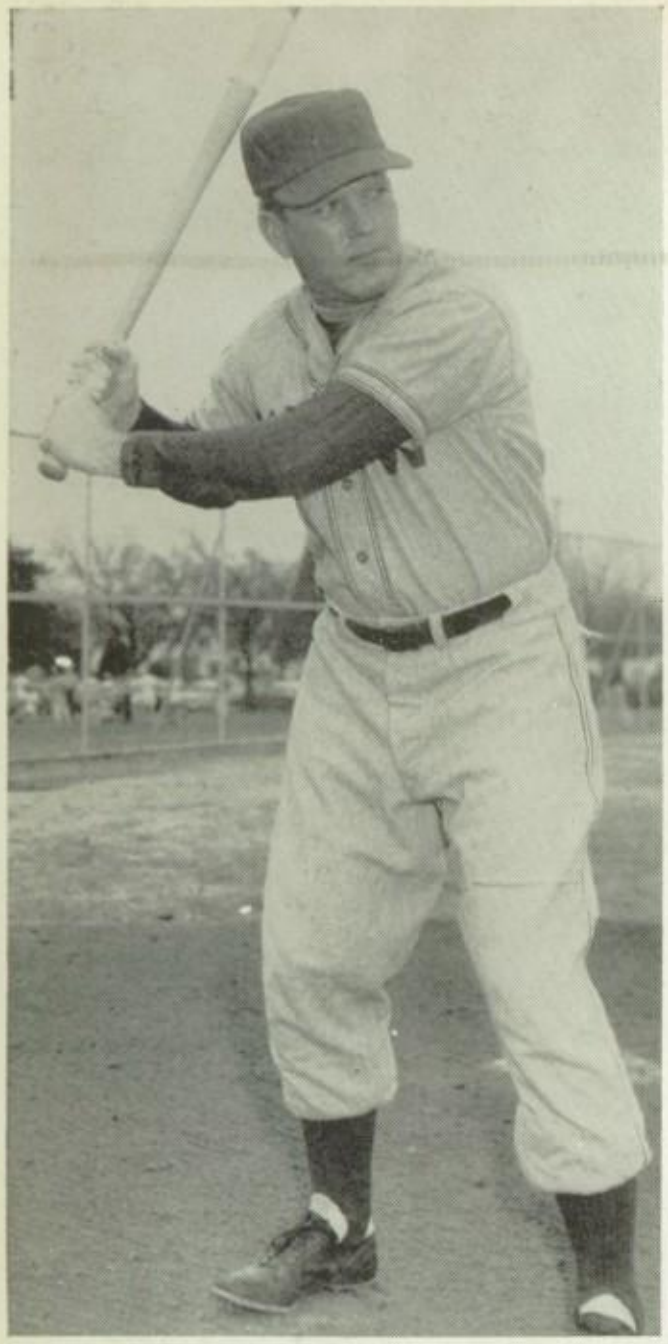
SEVEN RETURNING LETTERMEN MAKE CHANCES OF BASEBALL TEAM BRIGHT



The hopes of the "A" baseball team for having a good record this season were brightened by the return of seven lettermen whose experience was expected to spark the rest of the team. The team also boasts a new coach, Bobby Griffin, who returned this year from military service. At the time of publication, the team was in fourth place, but with constant improvement, they stood a good chance to reach the finals of the city race.

"B" BASEBALL CLUB CONDITIONS ROOKIES FOR PLAY ON "A" TEAM

Coach Don Helms has the job of teaching members of the "B" team the fine points of running, pitching, catching, and batting. Because of the practice gained in games with other "B" teams of the city many of these boys are considered as likely prospects for membership in the "A" club next year.

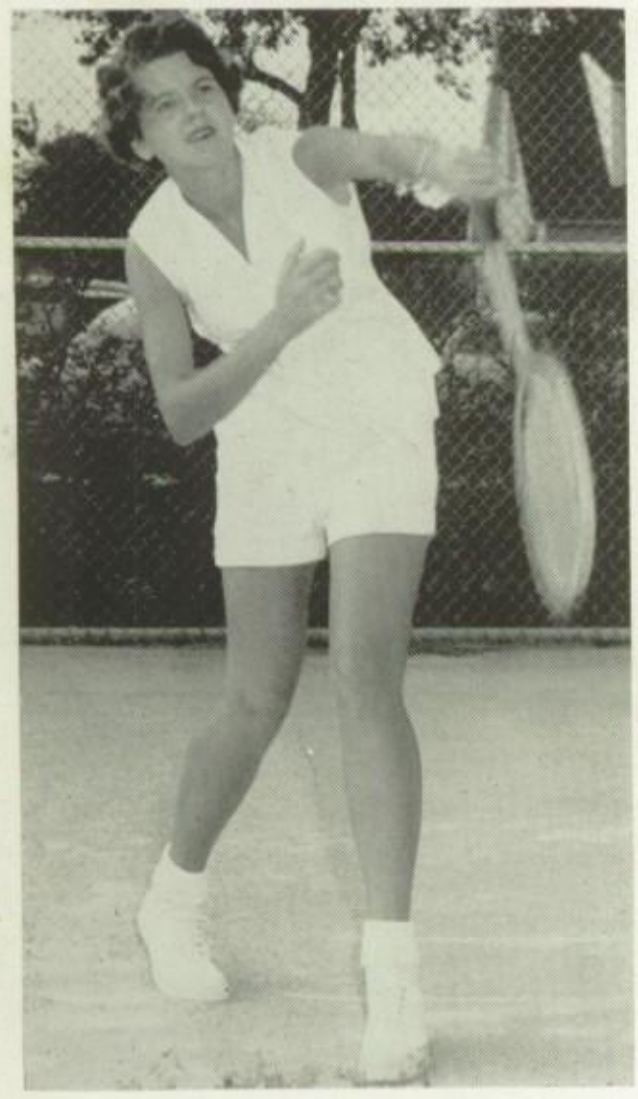
WILDCAT TENNIS TEAM WINS ALL FOUR EVENTS IN DISTRICT

This year the tennis team won all four events in the district match. This is the first time any school in the district has made such a record. Carolyn Savage won in the girls' singles, Kay Watson and Sue Zigenbein won girls' doubles. In the boys' matches, Tommy Lassiter won singles, and boys' doubles were won by Charles Erickson and Dan Shelton. Carolyn Savage also won the girls' singles event in the regional meet, and was a semi-finalist at the state meet.



Letterman Carolyn (Foofie) Savage is the tennis team's outstanding player this year, having won city, district, and regional girls' singles.

TRACKSTERS TAKE THIRD IN CITY

Track team coach, Melton Owen, watches intently as the boys get underway with their daily practice.

Coach Melton Owen's cindermen came in third in the city race this year. Although this was not as good as was expected, their determined effort gives every loyal Wildcat good reason to be proud of them. The injury early in the season of one of the top runners, Bagiackas, dampened hopes a bit, and some think that a better place in the city might have been reached if this misfortune had not befallen them. However Woodrow is no stranger to the top brackets when it comes to track, and with several lettermen returning next year, coaches think chances might be brighter then.

1955 Lettermen:

TRACK TEAM

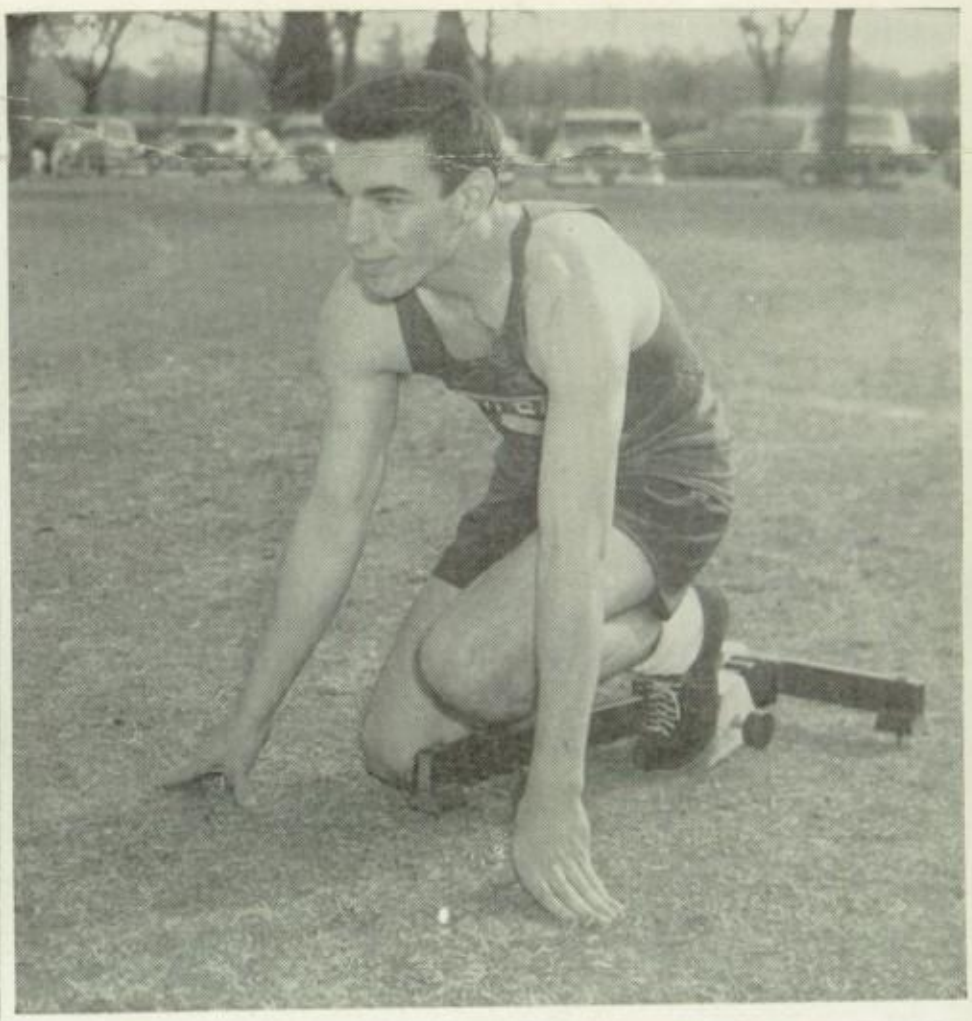
Jerry Box, co-captain of the track team and a letterman of the '54 season, prepares to demonstrate the technique that enabled him to tie for first place in the pole vaulting event in the city track meet.



Socrates Bagiackas, another returning letterman, was expected by the coach to make an outstanding showing in the '55 season. But in practicing a broad jump during a daily work-out he was injured and could not complete the season. However, he was awarded a letter for this year, and will be back next year.

RETURNING LETTERMEN MAKE NUCLEUS FOR THIS YEAR'S SQUAD

GOLF TEAM WINNING IN CITY RACE

At the time that the CRUSADER went to press, the golf team was leading in competition for the city crown. This fine showing is in keeping with the consistently good record set by the Wildcat golfers. Until this year, the team had not lost a match for three years. But in spite of the loss of one match this season, hopes of the coach and fans are high that the team will make it five consecutive years for Woodrow Wilson to win the city championship in golf.

Cheerleader sponsor, Helen Parsons, smiles in return for a compliment paid her on her peppy cheerleaders.

These energetic seniors are the leaders of the spirit of the silver and flame. This year there were seven cheerleaders instead of the usual six. At the first of the season when Micky Hurst broke his collar bone, the alternate, Joe Grubbs, took his place. After Micky recovered Joe remained a permanent member of the group. Cheerleaders are chosen in the spring for the following year. They are selected for their vivacity, cheerfulness, and love of Woodrow Wilson. Under the leadership of Helen Parsons, sponsor, they work hard and in the opinion of the teams and followers they always get results.

Our seven happy cheerleaders eagerly accept a gift from Mr. Ashburn to the school, a Wildcat Skin. "Pop" shot the Wildcat himself during summer vacation.

Below are six of our vivacious cheerleaders. They are getting a Pep Rally under way with the traditional first yell, "Who Are We."

P. E. CLASSES TEACH GIRLS HEALTHFUL SPORTS

In the gym classes girls are taught team work and healthful participation in sports. They learn to take part in games ranging from baseball to tumbling. In spite of the baggy gym suits and "utter exhaustion" after a period of recreation, most girls appreciate this opportunity to get wholesome exercise and to learn to cooperate with other members of their teams.

Officers watch and pass judgment as lines of cadets pass the reviewing stand.

The R.O.T.C. Band provides the stirring marching music that sparks the Wednesday morning parades.

R.O.T.C. COMBINES

Cadets salute Lt. Col. Dan Harting and his lady, Gail Ostler, as they leave the building at the end of the Officers' Dance.

A parade is beginning. Regimental staff officers led by Lt. Col. Tommy Lassiter march to their position to see the corps pass in review.

At Camp Dallas near Mineral Wells tents are being erected by cadets in preparation for the 30 day camping period for ambitious R.O.T.C. boys from Dallas schools.

During the playing of the national anthem the entire corps stands at attention? and the cadets not in the ranks salute.

DISCIPLINE, HARD WORK, AND ENJOYMENT

"Knee deep in Khaki", Tommy Salas and Jimmy White are sorting out uniforms for the more than 700 Woodrow Wilson cadets at the first of the school term.

At Camp Dallas these cadets are either practicing for inter-company athletics or (perish the thought!) being disciplined.

FACULTY AND STUDENT BODY APPRECIATE THE STUDENT COUNCIL

Student Council members are elected by their classmates and have a variety of experiences, ranging from buying CRUSADERS and baseball tickets to planning school dances and purchasing needed equipment.

The students and school are indebted to this group and Mr. Ashburn rewarded them with a luncheon at Dunton's Cafeteria in the fall. The sports editors from The Dallas Morning News and The Dallas Times Herald spoke to the group to promote the sale of football tickets.

SENIOR HONOR LIBRARY COUNCIL LENDS NEEDED HELP AS MEMBERS LEARN LIBRARY WORK

A real friend to a poor "joker" in need of some quick information is a member of the Library Council. These outstanding Seniors come to Librarian Helen Braack highly recommended by their teachers. They have to be dependable and familiar with literary works. They also need to have some knowledge of the Dewey Decimal System.

AID IN MODERN TEACHING METHODS

Members become expert in splicing film and making other minor repairs. Mr. Brown, the sponsor, has a schedule of operators available at each period in the study halls. Besides meeting regularly, parties are also an activity which receives an enthusiastic response from the members of this club.

JUNIOR RED CROSS HAS VARIED HUMANITARIAN ACTIVITIES

Jr. Red Cross members do not nurse patients or take temperatures, but they do sponsor shut-ins and see that they are not neglected. Another function of this club is to send packages to foreign countries.

One representative is elected by each home room.

ART SERVICE CLUBBERS DEMONSTRATE CREATIVE TALENTS PRACTICALLY

The word "service" is not accidental in the name of the Art Service Club. These talented proteges of Merle Fincher always have a backlog of projects to be done, such as posters and scenery for special assemblies. These are only a few of the projects which the members of the Art Service Club, usually students of the art department, tackle annually.

Making a poster, decorations for a dance, or just what Suzie Todd, Bobby Morrow, and Bob Briddick are doing is not clear here, but one can be sure that it is something for the school.

PAN AMERICAN STATE PRESIDENT IS MARC SIMMONS FROM WW

"Buenas tardes" . . . is the greeting you might receive from a member of the Pan American Student Forum, if you attended their meeting every first and third Wednesday in Hall 1. These senors and senoritas take Spanish in school and enjoy furthering this interest by participating in the activities of the Pan American Student Forum. They learn more about neighbors south of the border and make new friends in their own school. A highlight of their activities is the convention held each spring in Austin, Texas. Y-TEENS ARE HELPED TO BECOME THE "ALL-ROUND AMERICAN GIRL"

"They call it the mambo!" At a Y-Teen meeting Linda Guess demonstrates that popular dance craze borrowed from our Latin-American neighbors. Those watching are Jerry Lee, Nancy Beeman, Carol Parker, Katherine Wallace, and Barbara Flabiano.

Membership in the Y-Teen Club gives a girl a membership in the Y.W.C.A. and entitles her to the benefits and activities of the "Y", such as swimming, dancing, tennis, and others. These girls contribute to the World Fellowship Fund, which helps extend the benefits of the Y.W.C.A. to girls all over the world. The club also sponsors dances and parties for its members. The Woodrow Wilson chapter meets on alternate Monday afternoons and is sponsored by Mrs. Kennedy and Miss Farris.

Avis Tieber

Even a tumbler takes a tumble occassionally. Avis Tieber causes some anxiety on the part of Bettye Vance and Miss Webb as she falls from Bettye's shoulders.

"Earth Angel," Jayne Melcher, is balanced by Marion Rankin as they demonstrate the "backward angel."

"Roll With Me, Henry!" Tumbler Brenda Bishop prepares to roll into the double somersault at a tumbling club meeting.

TUMBLING CLUB COMPOSED OF EXPERTS AND BEGINNERS

In the Tumbling Club the novice can mingle with the experts. The experts can play the clown. All can get down to serious, though enjoyable activity of learning new stunts to present at football games, on assembly, and for various other groups. Sponsored and coached by Mattie Dell Webb, this group boasts of some outstanding tumblers, including this year Avis Tieber, president, and Bettye Vance, secretary, who have won distinction in the National Women's A. A. U. Tumbling Contests.

ACTUAL FLYING EXPERIENCE ENJOYED BY AERONAUTICS CLUB MEMBERS

The purpose of the Aeronautics Club is to promote private flying. These boys, many of whom are taking flying lessons, have made several flights to Meacham and Amon Carter Fields in Fort Worth and have visited Central and Pioneer Airlines in Dallas. They have also taken tours of Chance Vought, Temco, and Bell Aircraft Companies. As part of their training each boy must design and build a model aircraft.

ICE SKATING

It only take 35c, plus the Willingness to take the bumps and falls that always comes into every aspiring skater's life, to belong to one of our largest school organizations, the Ice Skating Club. Each Tuesday afternoon, this year, professional instructors were at the arena to offer their assistance to the not-so-skilled skaters. Everyone knows that such outstanding amateurs as Suzanne Bethel, Ruth Sanders, and the club president, Linda Guess, need little instruction. The climax of the year for these energetic skaters and their sponsor, Mrs. Cooper, was a snack party.

ROLLER SKATING CLUB CLOSES FIRST YEAR SUCCESSFULLY

"Swing and sway on every Tues-day" is not the motto of the Rollerskating Club, but it might well be. About 150 Woodrowites and their sponsor, W. D. Franks, go to the Fair Park Roller Rink on Tuesday afternoons to enjoy several hours of unexcelled recreation. Some of the members could not skate at the first of the year; but through trial and error they have become skaters, though perhaps not professionals.

TAPE RECORDING CLUB TAPES INTERESTING PROGRAMS FOR OTHER COUNTRIES

Recording for London? Paris? Members of the Tape Recording Club, Carey McElya, Franklin Jones, and David Harris, adjust the machine for registering an assembly program on tape.

Performers on assembly never know when their acts will later be enjoyed by people of foreign countries, because the Tape Recording Club records assemblies and sents them to students in other lands. Mr. Morgan and his club, in this way, help to promote good friendship between our country and others.

AMATEUR RADIO OPERATORS LEARN JARGON ALONG WITH TECHNICALITIES

"W-5-Crazy Uncle Charlie." . . . That's what one astounded onlooker heard a member of the Amateur Radio Operators Club say into his microphone one day. Devotees of radio-telephony (short-wave type) have a field day in this, one of the newest clubs in Woodrow. Only boys are members at present, but Sergeant Martin, sponsor, and his boys have hopes of interesting some "Y L" (young lady) operators in the club next year. These boys build "ham" radio sets, get their amateur radio licenses, and talk with fellow operators in many foreign countries.

PRESS CLUBBERS HEAR SUCCESSFUL JOURNALISTS AT MEETINGS

Every other Thursday morning finds another newspaperman (or woman) "talking shop" to the potential journalists of the Press Club, which is sponsored by Mildred Juniger.

Among the outstanding speakers on the subject of journalism as a career this year were Sam Blain of the Dallas Morning News, and Frankie Waits and John Fleming of the Dallas Times Herald.

P.T.A. INAUGURATES NIGHT MEETINGS TO INCLUDE FATHERS IN ACTIVITIES

Tea Time at a P. T. A. Meeting
Mrs. Royster, Mrs. Boyd, Miss Wilkins, Mrs. Tolson, Mrs. Burleson, and Mrs Zollner are some of the members that contribute much to the well-being of Woodrow Wilson.

No longer a "Mothers' Club!" The P. T. A. which has had daytime meetings for years, has started experimenting with night meetings to enable the fathers to attend. This will give the hard-working mothers the added support of the fathers. This organization has given the school many useful things, such as, a much-needed camera for the CRUSADER staff, a tape recorder, which enabled the school to have a tape recording club, books for the library to be enjoyed by the entire school, and a record player for the music department.

Its value as a morale builder and as an aid to parents and teachers in promoting better schools is difficult to measure, but is very real, say school authorities. Mrs. Jack Burleson was president this year.

Each graduating class publishes a paper-bound booklet known as the "Senior Pub." The January Pub, "Katz'n' Kittens," sponsored, as always, by H. Bush Morgan, contained amusing experiences, humorous stories, and embarassing notes.

CRUSADER STAFF WORKS HARD

If all pictures were available to THE CRUSADER staff in September or October, the deadline in April would not be a bugbear—so says Paul Allen, sponsor. But, alas, some pictures are taken even in April; hence all the hue and cry in Room 108 and the Annual office about that time of the year. The yearbook staff is restricted by Principal Ashburn to girls, in order to give more girls an opportunity to contribute something to their school.

TO MEET DEADLINE

These girls and their sponsor work early and late cropping and figuring ratios on pictures, pasting layouts, writing copy, and reading proof. The CRUSADER places consistently "All-Texas" in the Texas High School Press Association ratings, and rates "good" in the National Association.

Surprise! Surprise! Mr. Allen had just received a good one when the camera caught him at a birthday party given in his honor by the CRUSADER staff on October 13. Held after school it was complete with ice cream and a cake with candles.

WILDCAT BAND PROVIDES

FAVORITE ASSEMBLY PROGRAMS

In addition to these programs, the band also furnishes the half-time entertainment for the football games, and several concerts each year and for the general public.

Drum Major Jimmy Kirkwood and Band Director Colonel Royster are seen discussing plans for the band's next halftime performance at Dal-Hi Stadium.

MAJORETTES SPORT NEW UNIFORMS

FEATURES

One act that gathered no moss. Stanley Babbitt asks Bill Johnson in a a "man on the street" inquiry, "Which stone, sir, will roll the farthest?"

Yell, Wildcats yell! Cheerleaders give one last gigantic leap to spur the students' enthusiasm to even greater heights.

THURSDAY THRILL . . .

A southern drawl (unaffected, too) was well evident as Sara Anne Frazier told of a small colored boy's first train ride.

Composer Albert Hay Mallotte looks approvingly at Denise Foster, Woodrow's recent contribution to the entertainment world, afer Denise has finished singing "The Lord's Prayer," accompanied by the composer himself.

"Get Tame-root Cream-Oil, Charlie. Start using it today," and you too may get to be a hit on assembly, as Sylvia Randall and Sharon Prescott are, giving a burlesque of radio programs.

The finger of Bill Anders, music director of the East Grand Baptist Church, points to that huge giant, Goliath. The Biblical story of David and Goliath was never more dramatically told than in song by Mr. Anders on a Woodrow assembly program.

WOODROW ASSEMBLIES . . .

Another trophy case please, Mr. Ashburn! Student Council president, Gerald McCoy, presents Woodrow with another trophy to applause by Jimmy Kirkwood and assembly.

Chemistry magic. On assembly Mr. Chamberlain and Herbert Herrin explain how the contents of the Magic Barrel were developed from products of petroleum.

The old gym surely looked pretty after Carl Ann Graham, Betty Kelly, Mr. Morgan, and other helpers finished decorating for the Senior Prom. "Winter Wonderland" was the motif.

CAMERA CATCHES SCHOOL LIFE

Everyone has been waiting for this big moment. Delsie Clark receives her diploma from her uncle, Superintendent W. T. White, while her excited classmates look on.

Did someone lose something? Those shoes must belong to someone in that crowd at the January Officers' Ball.

Nowadays a teacher and pupils have to have a TV personality. Senior English teacher Corin Humphries and pupils carry on under lights and camera, one day during Texas Education Week.

Form-able opponents, these. Net stars Carolyn Savage, Sherry Phillips, and Jean Whybark admire another tennis trophy they helped win for the WW collection.

IN VARIOUS PHASES

It's hard enough to remember the proportional corresponding sides without having to be an actor, but Hal Simmons does a good job of both in Irving Hill's geometry class before the TV cameras.

"You know, man — a ball, a ball — you just have a ball," explains "stepmother" Evelyn Richardson to her two daughters, Merilyn Loyd and Gay Ann Baugher, in "Catarella," a cool, crazy version of an old story.

Ellen Ray, Barbara Bailey, Mickey Crittendon, and "Puggie" East intend to let people on the route to Lubbock know who they are by means of the banner they are putting on the bus.

Among the first to purchase bus tickets for the Wildcat-Westerner game were Martha Myers, Gay Hardin, Jonnie Morrison, Helene Ruzicka, Vicki Roberts, and Joe Riffe. Selling the tickets for the P.T.A. are Mrs. Burleson and Mrs. George Human.

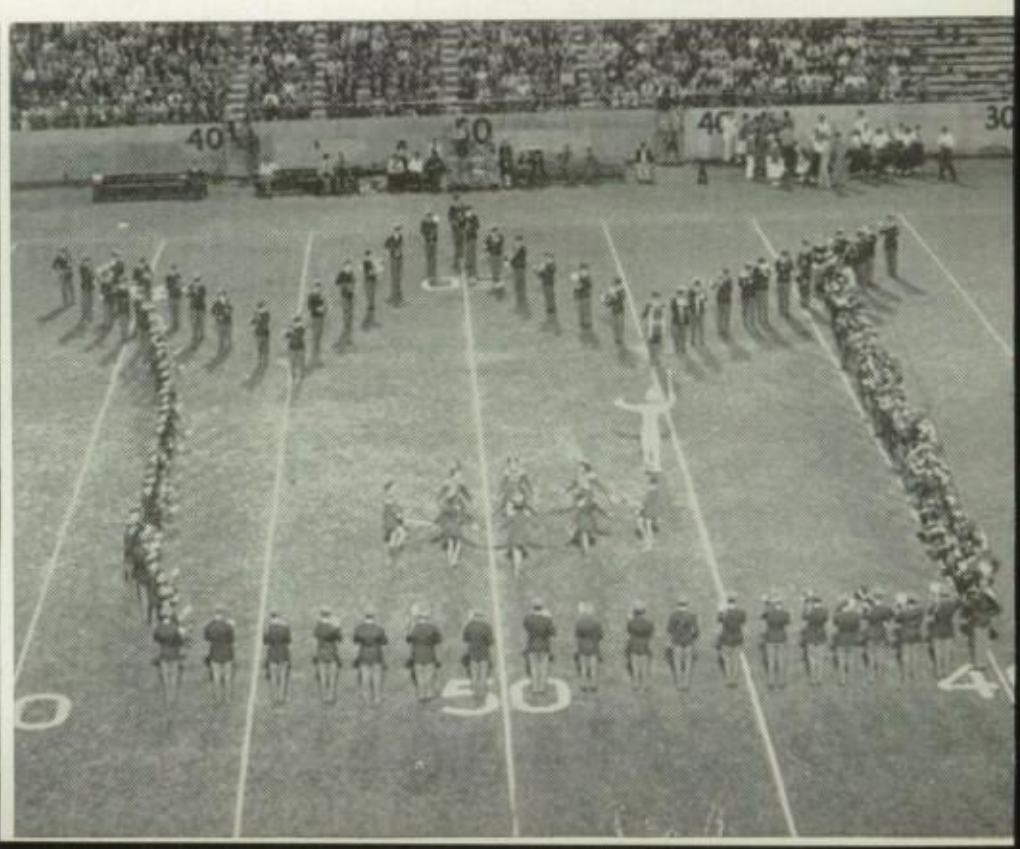
FIVE BUSLOADS OF STUDENTS ATTEND ONLY OUT-OF-TOWN GAME

Four loyal football fans, Emily Warner, Judy Burleson, Carolyn Reed, and Jennie Golson, look very happy as they wave farewell before departing for Lubbock. The brave chaperones, Mrs. George Human, and Mrs. Jack Burleson, and the poor bus driver also are looking happy as they prepare to leave on a sleepless trip.

Far from home at the Lubbock game, the Woodrow Wilson band and majorettes are forming a crown in honor of John Philip Sousa, King of the Marches.



WILDCAT SPIRIT STILL PREVAILS . . . WIN, LOSE, OR DRAW

Something besides a football is being kicked as majorettes Marie Bohannon, Sondra Brawner, and Bettie Spoonemore cheer the team on.

Sign Language! Cheerleaders Pud Harper and Don Vickery are urging Wildcats to "Lick the Lions" on the eve of the Forest game.

Jubilant Wildcat fans jump and yell as the squad comes through again with another spectacular play.

Girl Meet Boy! WW girls are shown congratulating the football boys on their good playing in the North Dallas game.

. . . ALWAYS ENJOYABLE

Rocking along. Honey Chiles Oscar Turner and Bob Flournoy give rhythmic rendition of "Roll With Me, Henry."

A night out at the Stork Club? No, only a night club scene on the Woodrow Wilson "pay assembly."

Gracious hostesses are Vicki Foster and Carol Parker as they welcome students and parents to Open House. Here Betty Ann Maples and her mother take a program listing the evening events.

INTEREST IN SCHOOL SHOWN DURING AMERICAN EDUCATION WEEK

Every year parents and teachers meet during American Education Week for an open house at Woodrow Wilson. This social event provides a time for discussion of problems relating to the school, as well as a time for entertainment by the different organizations of the school.

"Angel-like voices" float down from the balcony of the auditorium as the chorus, directed by Mrs. Wanda Reynolds, entertain the guests at Open House.

By rare coincidence at Open House Pat "Parker" happens to have her wedding pictures, and sister Nancy happens to have brought her baby to show to their former faculty members, Mr. Brown and Mrs. Francis.

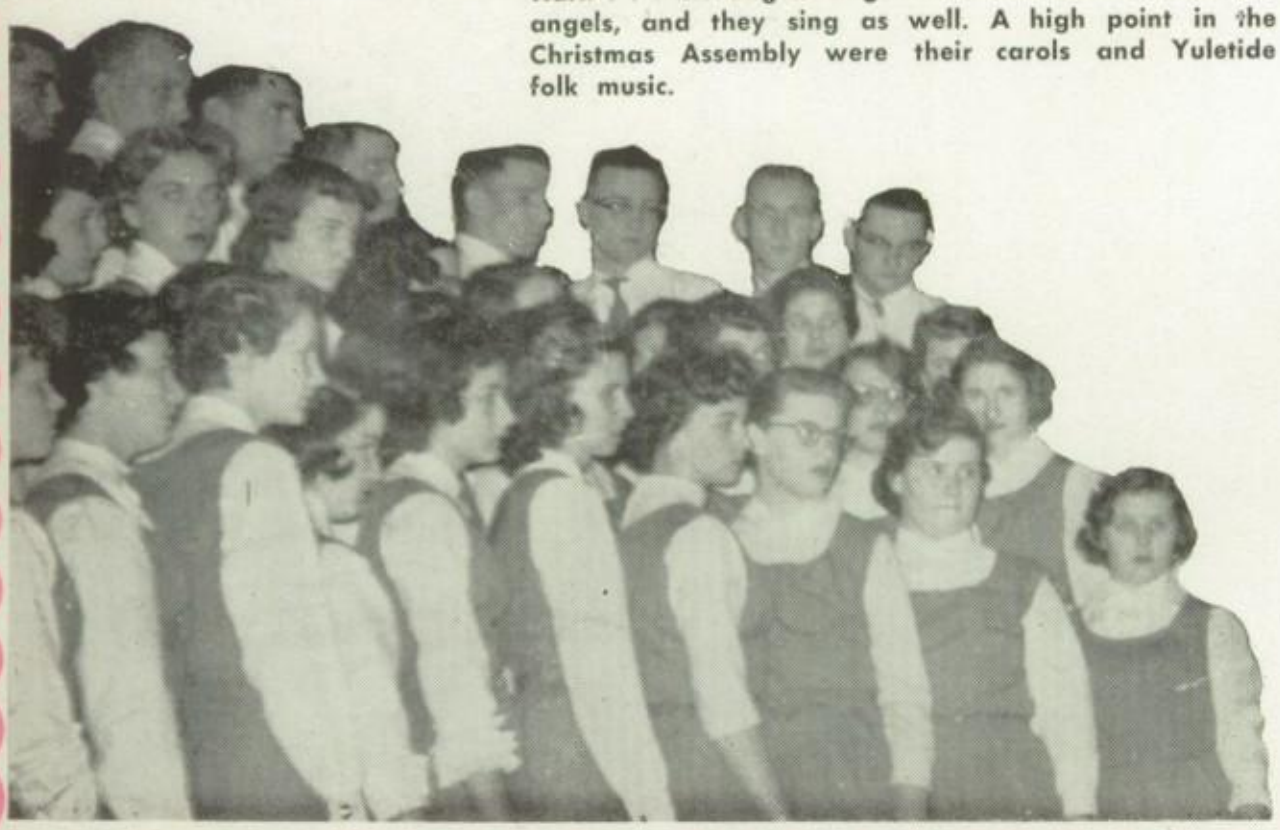
Pupils, parents, and teachers meet and discuss school at Open House. In the foreground Jean Bright and her parents talk with math teacher, Mr. Martin.

Christmas decorations pop out everywhere. Sandra Simmons and Ethelyn Virden look like Santa's helpers with their gay felt skirts decorated with hard candies and tinsel.

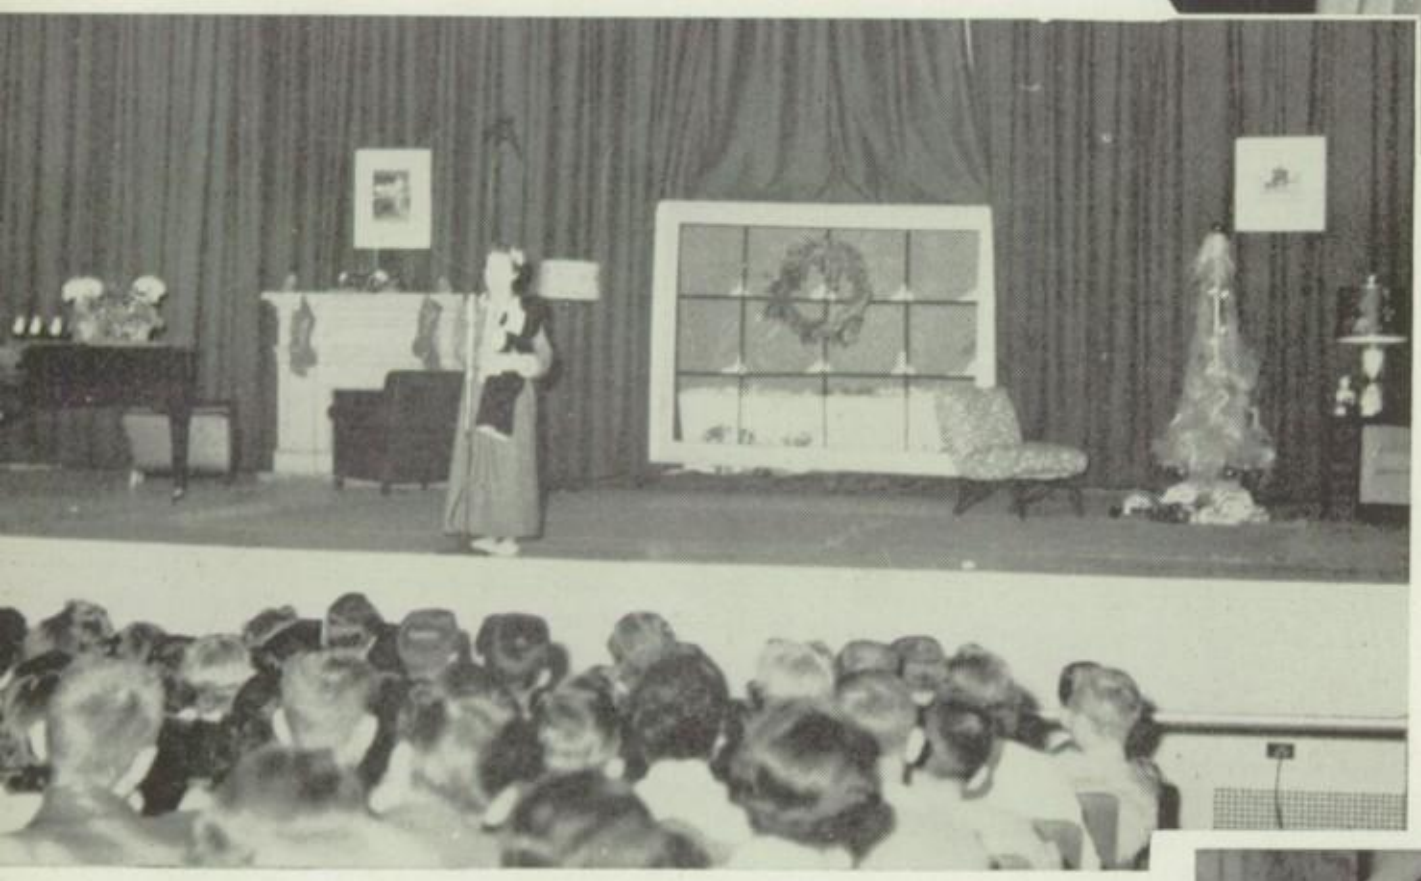
Christmas spirit abounds at Woodrow, especially on the last day of classes. Happy voices from every direction call "Merry Christmas." "Gifts of the Magi" are exchanged by Sandy Schroeder, Bobbie Cullison, Ann Parlington, Carol Parker, and Lou Ann Mires.

CHRISTMAS AT WOODROW IS JOYFUL . . . AND INSPIRING

Hark . . . the angels sing! The school chorus looks like angels, and they sing as well. A high point in the Christmas Assembly were their carols and Yuletide folk music.



". . . Not a creature was stirring, not even a mouse," recited Lil Janet Elmore in her red nightie clutching her teddy bear firmly.



The Christmas Assembly stage gives the impression of being from a scene in "White Christmas" as Janet tells the story of "A Visit from St. Nicholas."

CURTAIN GOING UP, A PLAY WITHIN A PLAY, RECEIVED ENTHUSIASTICALLY

Curtain Going Up, and it did go up to disclose a delightful and unusual play. The trials of a speech teacher, Irene Burgess, played by Ann Hutchinson, as she presents her first senior play starring Denise Foster as Lorry Fuller were most amusing. The battle of wits between Miss Burgess and the uncooperative janitor, played by Monte Witte, made lively dialog and action.

Not a hat show from the 1800's, but crucial senior play tryouts. Sylvia Johnson and Franklyn Jones give their all, to the delight of Little Theatre Club members.

Something different in play acting is using the auditorium as part of the stage. Here Monte Witte, as school janitor in the January Class play Curtain Going Up, walks puzzled from the auditorium carrying a shoe.

HERE THEY ARE . . .

The Favorites at Woodrow Wilson have just cause to be proud. These Seniors from both the June and the January classes are chosen in a runoff election after the entire student body has nominated several hundred for the honors.

Those chosen this year and in the past give proof that they are chosen for their participation and leadership in school activities, for their friendliness, and their willingness to work and share their talents with others.

Their identity has been kept secret until the publication of this book. Here they are . . .

THREE YEARS OF WAITING YIELDS HAPPY GROUP OF SENIORS

"Memories" is an appropriate song as Peggy Davis and Freddy Hunter sign CRUSADERS and take pictures to make their Senior Breakfast at Sammy's a long remembered event.

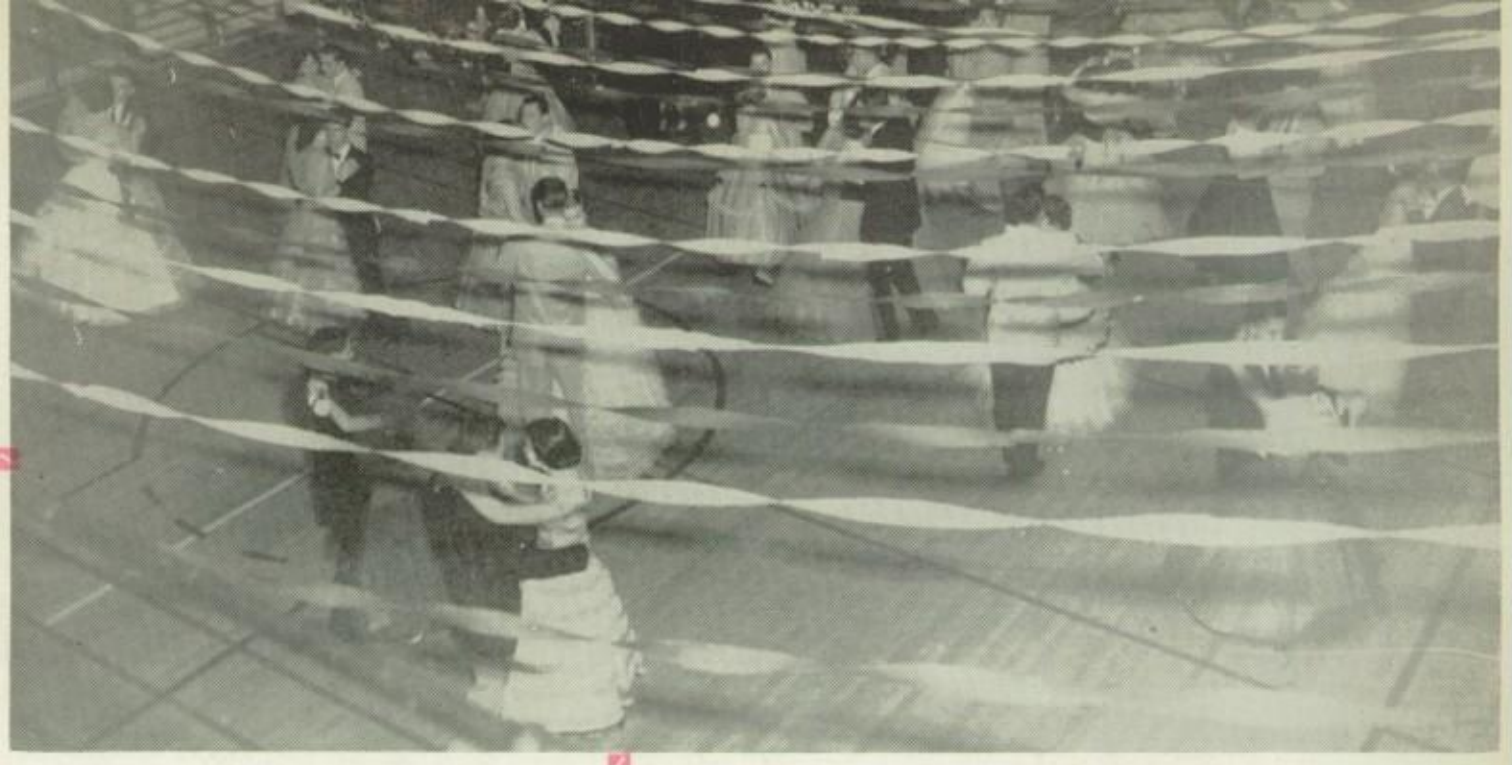
"Mumble, boy mumble" are the directions given to Jim McBride and Freddy Hunter by Jimmy Kirkwood, pantomiming "Sh-Boom" on the Senior Assembly in January.

Tearful but cheerful voices rise for "Here's a toast to you" as Woodrow seniors sing the "Alma Mater" for the last time.



Whether it's "Let Me Call You Sweetheart" or "Let Me Go Lover," February 14 brings the same sentiments to mind—and the Valentine Dance in the school gym.

DANCES AT WOODROW ARE FUN-FILLED OCCASIONS

Football players turn to night life. At the school Football Dance Pat Thorp and Dwayne Taylor demonstrate to dates, Janet Keehan and Sara Rogers, just how they can tackle so gracefully.

Ghosts may walk on October 31, but Woodrowites dance. Bettye Levering, Franklyn Jones, Sharon Broyles, and Gail Walker ward off the evil spirits by merely selecting another number on the juke box.

Front and center! The officers follow the command and, arm in arm with their dates, they present a stirring picture for the Grand March at the Officers' Ball.

Lots of Daisy Maes and Lil Abners with corsages of onions, radishes, and carrots are on hand for the annual Sadie Hawkins dance. This proves that the Mounties aren't the only ones who get their men!
